

MORE THAN $10,000 BEING OFFERED!

Beef Industry Scholarship Challenge June 17-18, 2011 University of Georgia • Athens, Ga.

ARE YOU A HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT AND THINKING ABOUT COLLEGE? Do the large dollar amounts of tuition, books and living expenses worry you? BISC is an awesome program designed to offer scholarship money to passionate high school students, while engaging you in hands-on, real world scenarios beef cattle producers deal with every day. This two-day event will be packed FULL of exciting learning opportunities that will prepare YOU for your future!

10 Stations (25 minutes/ station):

- Handling and Health
- Nutrition
- Marketing
- Credit and Finance
- Job Interview
- Seedstock Merchandising with Keep-Cull Replacement Heifers
- Reproduction
- Beef Management Challenge
- Beef Industry Issues
- Meat Identification

BISC Official Entry Form / Entry Deadline: May 15, 2011

Team Name: _____

Team Coach: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Student Name*:

Grade:

County and State:

_____ $200/ team (GA residents*) _____ $250/team (non-GA residents)
_____ $100/team (Junior team-Freshman and Sophomore students)

*Georgia residents must be current GJCA member

Grade as of Jan. 1 of contest year

Make check payable and return to:

Georgia Junior Cattlemen's Association • P.O. Box 27990, Macon, Ga. 31221
(478) 474-6560 • katlin@gabeef.org