

GJCA Sweepstakes Contest

The GJCA Sweepstakes Contest is designed to reward GJCA members for their participation in the various events including showmanship and leadership activities held throughout the year.

The point system will begin March 1st and will conclude on February 28th the following year. All point sheets must be postmarked on or before February 28, 2008 in order to be entered in the current contest. All points postmarked after the February 28th deadline will be entered in the next year's contest. There will be no exceptions.

All youth interested in the beef and dairy industries, are GJCA members and Georgia residents are eligible to compete in the sweepstakes contest as long as they do not turn age 22 before the completion of the contest.

The contest will be split up into two divisions. The junior division will consist of GJCA members who are in 8th grade or under. The senior division will consist of GJCA members who are 9th grade and above. Divisions will be determined based on the grade level of the GJCA member at the time of the beginning of the contest. For example, a member who is in 8th grade at the start of the contest on March 1, 2007 will be considered a contestant of the junior division even though he/she will be in the 9th grade at the completion of the contest.

Points may be accumulated based on eight areas including the beef ambassador contest, showmanship, GCA Convention, GJCA Field Day, attending livestock shows, judging contest at the Beef Expo, attending local chapter meetings, and attending beef industry meetings.

In the result of a tie, the tie will be broken depending on the number of points obtained in the membership category. Whoever has the most points for recruitment of new junior members will be declared the winner. The following is a list of the eight events/activities in which points may be accumulated:

Points will be awarded for attending Georgia beef industry educational seminars or events. This may include breed association activities, hay and forage meetings, agricultural days, farm safety days, tours, two cattle sales/auctions, etc. In order for points to be obtained, the seminar/event must be at least 3 hours in length and relative to the beef industry. No additional livestock shows will be accepted in this category. Eligible events must be held within the state. Final determination of points is up to the GCA staff and GJCA leadership's discretion. A total of 8 seminars/events per sweepstakes contest may be turned in.

Attending a Georgia beef industry educational seminar/event = 5 pts.

Submitting Point Reports

1. All GJCA members are eligible to participate in the sweepstakes contest.
2. Contestants may begin submitting points anytime throughout the year. (Keep in mind that points that may have been earned earlier in the year will not be counted toward the total unless they are submitted within the two-week deadline. See #4). The contestant's first point report will establish his or her participation in the sweepstakes contest.
3. Fill out the corresponding point report with each event.
4. All points must be turned into the GCA office within two weeks of the last day of the event. For example, if a contestant wants to turn in points from showmanship at the state show, since the last day of the event is February 27th (this is a Sunday, so the last day will be considered the February 28th) your points report must be postmarked on or before March 14th to be eligible. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS! Any form postmarked after the two-week deadline will be considered ineligible.
5. All forms must be complete, including appropriate signatures to be considered eligible.
6. Please keep in mind that even though many of these events are coordinated by GCA and we will know who participated and how they placed, the contestant must still submit their score sheets in order for the points to count toward the sweepstakes.
7. A junior may win the competition in his or her division each year but cannot consecutively win use of the trailer.
8. All point reports should be submitted to: Georgia Junior Cattlemen's Association, Attn: Julie Sims, P.O. Box 24510, Macon, GA 31212.
