Georgia Cattlemen's Association Foundation Scholarship is a charitable foundation established to educate and build leaders and advocates for the cattle industry and to promote the history and heritage of this industry in Georgia.

Clarence and Jennie Cross Memorial Scholarship is given in recognition of the Cross' lifetime of commitment, dedication, and contribution to the agriculture and livestock industry. The Cross family established this scholarship to honor their father's 68 years as a successful farmer and breeder of top quality Hereford Cattle. Miss Jennie was active in the farming operation and was very active as a community volunteer as well.

Johnny Jenkins Scholarship is presented in memory of Johnny Jenkins and his five decades of service to the livestock publishing industry. The scholarship is funded through donations to the Georgia Cattlemen's Association Foundation in recognition of Johnny and his wife Liddy's life time commitment to the livestock industry and their love and support of the youth in our industry.

Judy Thomas Memorial Scholarship was established by her family to honor Mrs. Thomas' many years of work with the Local, State and National CattleWomen and Cattlemen Associations and particularly her devotion to the youth of the cattle industry.
